

MUSIC PLANNER

2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time – 5th Sunday of Easter Year C - The Year of Luke 20th January 2019 - 19th May 2019

As we begin this first period of Ordinary Time, a change in the setting of the acclamations and Gloria would emphasise the beginning of a new season. However, in Year C the Gospel continues the message of the Epiphany with the third manifestation of Christ. The long list of suggested music reflects the themes of Marriage, Eucharist and Epiphany, so extra care will be needed in preparing your liturgy.

As this is the last Sunday before Lent it might be appropriate to end today's liturgy with a song including the word Alleluia! Perhaps Halle, Halle or one of the many songs based on the Celtic Alleluia.

The SEASON of LENT

As we enter the season of Lent, the dynamics of the Liturgy during Mass changes from Ordinary Time: the 'Alleluia' is not sung, and the Gloria is omitted. We have an opportunity to introduce a different Mass setting; perhaps one that is more considered and reflective, and in keeping with the aspects of Lent. This need not mean having to learn a whole new setting. Many of the liturgical composers have now revised their original Mass settings to accommodate the new texts introduced in 2011. You may only need to learn a few adjustments to otherwise familiar settings:

Christopher Walker - A New Celtic Liturgy
Marty Haugen - Revised Mass of Creation
Bernadette Farrell - Mass of Hope (Revised)
Paul Inwood - Revised Gathering Mass

Useful source books for Lent are:

These Forty Days – Janet Sullivan Whitaker
Wondrous Love - Haugen
Resurrexit - Decani

Some pieces of music can be used throughout Lent at your discretion

e.g. Praise to you O Christ - Farrell
Gather Us In - Haugen
Guide us O thou great Redeemer
Tree of Life – Haugen
Come back to God (Lent Entrance Song) – Foster / Cantate

For those following the RCIA programme, the following may be used on more than one occasion:

Glory to you, O Word of God - Haas/Ga
The Summons - John Bell/WGRG
We walk by faith - Laudate
Who calls you by name - Haas

Lenten Acclamations:

Glory and praise to you – AK
Glory to you, O Word of God - Haas/Ga
Praise to you, O Christ - Boulton Smith /MM1
Who calls you by name - Haas

Psalms:

During Lent the following Common Psalms may be sung in place of the Psalm for the day:
Psalm 50 - "Have mercy on us Lord, for we have sinned"
Psalm 90 - "Be with me, Lord, in my distress"
Psalm 129 – "With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption"

Ash Wednesday – 6th March 2019

Penitence is an essential part of the Christian life, for none of us can measure up to the tremendous vocation that is ours as Christians. We are in constant need of the mercy and forgiveness of God. Today we express this by taking part in an impressive corporate act of penitence and reconciliation, beseeching God for the grace to use with profit the 'favourable time' of preparation for the celebration of Christ's Passover feast.

Readings: Joel 2: 12-18 Psalm 50 2 Corinthians 5:20 – 6:2 Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18

Again we keep this solemn fast
Ashes
Attend and keep this happy fast
Be Still and know I am with you
Dear Lord and Father of Mankind
Deep within
From ashes to the living font
God to enfold you
Guide me O Thou great redeemer
Healer of our every ill
Hosea (Come back to me)

Lord Jesus, think on me
Lord, who throughout these forty days
My God accept my heart this day

You are mine
You are near

"Have mercy on us, O Lord, for we have sinned"

Be merciful, O Lord for we have sinned (Haugen - PCY 1, Ga)

Responsorial Psalter

*N.B. All the hymns from Ash Wednesday can be used again throughout the Lent Season
There are also three psalms that can be used throughout Lent: Psalm 50, Psalm 90 & Psalm 129*

1st Sunday of Lent (C) – 10th March 2019

Today we praise God for the marvellous things he did for our fathers; for his mighty hand and outstretched arm. What he did for them he still does for us, in Jesus the Lord who conquered sin and death.

There is a longing
You shall cross the barren desert

Psalm 90

"Be with me, O Lord, in my distress"

Be with me Lord (Haugen - PCY 1, Ga)

Responsorial Psalter

Lent is an excellent season for using a common psalm, for example Martyr Haugen's setting of Psalm 50/51 may be sung on each Sunday. Alternatively, if a simple chant setting is used the whole community can sing the psalm together.

2nd Sunday of Lent (C) – 17th March 2019

Like Abraham, our father in faith, we are called by God to a new homeland. We are not to rest in the material comforts of this world, but to move onwards towards the land of promise, where the Lord in whom we put our faith will transfigure our mortal bodies into the likeness of his glorified body.

Readings: Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18 Psalm 26 Philippians 3:17-4:1 Luke 9:28-36

5th Sunday of Lent (C) – 7th April 2019

The utter completeness of Christ’s forgiveness is almost incredible. When he says to us ‘Neither do I condemn you’, the past is dead, snuffed out like a wick, forgotten. Laughter and song fill our hearts. It seems like a dream.

HOLY WEEK

Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion (C) – 14th April 2019

On this day the Church celebrates Christ's entrance into Jerusalem to accomplish his paschal mystery. Accordingly, the memorial of this event is included in every Mass, with the procession or the solemn entrance before the principal Mass, with the simple entrance before the other Masses. The solemn entrance (but not the procession) may be repeated before one or other Mass that is usually well attended.

Procession Reading: Luke 19:28-40

Mass Readings: Isaiah 50:4-7 Psalm 21 Philippians 2:6-11 Luke 22:14-23:56

Procession of Palms

Ideally, you should congregate in a place other than the church. This may be difficult if space is limited or does not easily allow for the movement of people. If this is the case, try to be creative and consider a place where the palms could be blessed that will permit a procession into the church. The following hymns would be suitable to sing during the procession:

All Glory Laud and Honour	Laudate, Laudate Dominum (Walker)
Hail Redeemer, King Divine	Palm / Paschal Procession (Walker - L)
Laudate Dominum (Taize)	Ride on, Jesus, ride (Ga)
Laudate Omnes Gentes (Taize)	Ride on! Ride on in majesty (L)

For the Mass

As Prophets Foretold (L)	O Sacred Head, Ill-used
By His wounds we have been healed (L)	The Servant (Bell – WGRG)
Come to Jerusalem (L)	The Servant Song (Ga)
Man of sorrow wrapped in grief	Were you there
My Song is Love Unknown

There is a selection of appropriate music from the collection "The Courage to say No" written by John Bell and published by Wild Goose Publications. Those suitable for today would include:

Have mercy upon me, O God	Travelling the road to freedom
Love which understands

Psalm 21

"My God, my God, why have you forsaken me".

My God, My God (Liam Lawton – AWFJ)
My God, My God (Haugen – Ga)
My God, My God (Alan Smith – Psalm Songs Book III)

The TRIDUUM

Holy Thursday (C) – 18th April 2019

Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper

Today we celebrate Christ's twofold giving of himself: To his enemies, to die on the cross for the life of the world. He is the paschal victim, whose blood saves his people. To his friends, and disciples, his Church – that is, to us – in the sacrament of his body and blood. If we want to belong to Christ, we must follow his example of self-giving and of service – 'washing one another's feet'. We must be willing and ready to say with Christ, about our own selves: 'This is my body which is given up for you'. The whole purpose of today's liturgy is to enable us to make this self-giving the real motivation for our lives.

Readings: Exodus 12:1-8, 11-14 Psalm 115 1 Cor. 11:23-26 John 13:1-15

Oils that were blessed at the Chrism Mass in the Cathedral are presented to the parish. As each oil is brought forward the following may be sung:

Washing of the Feet

Any music you play or sing during this rite must sit comfortably with the action. Remember the rite takes precedence over the music. The music supports the rite not the other way round. Take great care in the selection of any accompaniment to the action, and greater care in the manner in which it is played and sung.
