*Psalm 66 Let all the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you.
Suggested common Psalm: I will praise Your name (PCY1)*

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time (A) – 27th August 2017

We rejoice today that Christ chose Peter in spite of his human failings to be the rock on which he built his Church. The reason for that choice lies in the unfathomable depth of God's wisdom. The Lord is high, yet he looks on the lowly.

Readings: Isaiah 22:19-23 Psalm 137 Romans 11:33-36 Matthew 16:13-20

All my hope on God is founded
At the name of Jesus (trad or Walker)
Be still & know that I am God
Be still for the presence of the Lord
Be Thou my vision
Because the Lord is my shepherd
Bread of life
Bring forth the Kingdom of God
Deep within
Father God, bless this family
Gather your people, O Lord
Meekness & majesty
Lord of all hopefulness
Love divine, all loves excelling

Now we remain
O the love of my Lord is the essence
Out of darkness
Praise to the Lord, the Almighty
Seek ye first the Kingdom of God
Sing a new song to the Lord (O'Hara)
Soul of my Saviour
Summoned by the God who made us
The Summons
The Kingdom of God is justice & joy
Thy hand, O God, has guided
We walk by faith
Within the reign of God

*Psalm 137: Your love, O Lord, is eternal, discard not the work of your hands.
In the presence of the angels, O Lord (PCY3))*

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time (A) – 3rd September 2017

It comes to us as no surprise that the Prophet Jeremiah should have felt reluctance to offer himself as a living sacrifice to God's will, because we all experience the same reluctance to accept the cross. But what consolation it is to know that Christ experienced the same reluctance of the flesh and had to struggle to overcome it.

Readings: Jeremiah 20:7-9 Psalm 62 Romans 12:1-2 Matthew 16:21-27

Be Thou my vision	Let us share this bread of life (Hurd – AGTG)
Blest are they, the poor in spirit	Love divine, all loves excelling
