The Solemnity of Christmas
25th December 2017

Four Masses are given: Vigil, Midnight, Dawn and Day.

Readings:

Vigil:	Isaiah 62:1-5	Psalm 88	Acts 13:16-17. 22-25	Matthew 1:1-25
Midnight:	Isaiah 9:1-7	Psalm 95	Titus 2:11-14	Luke 2:1-14
Dawn:	Isaiah 62:11-12	Psalm 96	Titus 3:4-7	Luke 2:15-20
Day:	Isaiah 52:7-10	Psalm 97	Hebrews 1:1-6	John 1:1-18

There is a wealth of hymns, songs and acclamations from which to choose on this joyous of liturgies. The following points may help in deciding your selection:

Consider your Parish and congregation. Remember that Christmas is often a time when families are together. It is likely that you will share your Christmas liturgy with people who neither come regularly to Mass, nor attend your liturgies at any other time of the year. How welcome and included will your visitors feel?

Christmas is for the whole community, not just for children...remember the Gospel narratives in Luke and Matthew: apart from the baby Jesus, and with the exception of Mary, all other characters in the story would be considered elderly.

Prepare the liturgy with the other ministries within your Parish: Priests, Deacons, Servers, Readers, Eucharistic Ministers, Flower Arrangers, etc... This often gives the various groups a greater sense of community and purpose. The better prepared you are, the greater the celebration.
