“Summertime 2021” Summer Break

Tuesday 3rd – Friday 6th

August

Oratory School, Reading

Summertime 2021

For altar servers, boys and girls, aged 10-15, of the Southwark diocese.

A well organised, fun, educational and prayerful week.

The week is a great opportunity to experienced a packed programme of activities, with the faith being presented in imaginative ways, as well as the opportunity for fun and making new friends

There will be imaginative talks on the Faith, discussion, daily mass, opportunities for Confession and devotional prayers. There will also be sports (football, swimming, etc) games, and a visit to Thorpe Park.

This takes place at the Oratory School, Reading, in Oxfordshire. The school has extensive grounds, sports facilities, and a swimming pool.

There will be free transport from/to Dartford to the school, details given nearer the time, and one can be picked up from Reading station at a particular time.

The week is organised by Fr. Stephen Boyle. Diocesan Chaplain to the Guild of St. Stephen, Fr. Peter Littleton, and Mark Wharton, and, during the week there will be religious sisters from St. Joseph's convent, Lymington, and, lay helpers.

The cost of the week is £165, which covers all accommodation, games, and entrance into Thorpe Park.
